Press Release

Annapolis Highland Vineyards 2010 Vintage Label Contest Closes on December 1, 2010

Annapolis Highland Vineyards 2010 vintage label contest closes on December 1, 2010. The contest is open to any Nova Scotia resident who would like to submit an existing piece of their artwork or photograph for the purpose of having it reproduced on the labels of Annapolis Highlands' wines.

The winning artwork will be displayed on Annapolis Highlands' 2010 vintage labels which will be released in 2011. The timing of this contest is important as 2011 will be the 400th anniversary of grape vines being planted in North America. The first vines were planted in the Bear River area where Annapolis Highland Vineyards is located. This will be a great way to celebrate this special anniversary by partnering our wines with the Nova Scotia artist communities.

Artists interested in entering this contest please contact Karen Enright 902-467-0917 or karen.enright@ns.sympatico.ca for further details.

Annapolis Highland Vineyards is a boutique winery located in Bear River East, Nova Scotia and has won nine medals, including four from the 2010 All Canadian Wine Competition, since opening its doors in June, 2009.
